

Bad Apple thought for a moment. "Okay, you can carry on," he said.

Everyone jumped back on the bus and they set off again. They didn't see Bad Apple behind them...

Back on the bus, the friends were singing along to some of their favourite songs on the radio.

Penny Passion Fruit was playing special carnival music on Tropical Island Radio.

Sour Grape was confused. "Shouldn't we have taken the map and dug up the treasure ourselves?" he asked.

Bad Apple laughed. "I have a plan," he said. "They can do all the work, and WE'LL take the treasure!"

Su Su was worried. The carnival would be starting soon, and there was no sign of the treasure.

"We're almost there," said Bernie, looking at the map. "We just have to cross the river!"
